

We Customized Programs to Satisfy Your Unique Needs

We are available to share our expertise with spiritual groups of all types. There are many spiritual paths, some conflict with others. We approach the world from a spiritual basis with a strong scientific foundation. Spiritual paths have been developed by many individuals and many of them conflict with the teachings of other paths.

Programs May Be Designed to:

- Dramatically increase individual faith in a higher power
- Understand that we are always provided for, if we allow it
- Undesired events do not indicate that we have been abandoned
- Differentiate between productive prayer and unproductive pleading (with a scientific basis)
- Increase the ability to connect with energetic healing
- Understand how to love, as indicated in Corinthians
- How to increase intuitive abilities
- How to be a catalyst for peace
- Increase resilience
- Decrease grief
- Understand Law of Attraction on a scientific basis
- Increase understanding of how to align with one's goals
- Understand the goodness that resides at the core of all
- The root cause of individuals being disconnected from their authentic, good self

Program Dates & Locations

Courses will be scheduled at the request of spiritual groups, and designed to fulfill their specific needs and desires. Programs are open to all groups. Quotes we believe are universal are used and may be drawn from a variety of belief systems. Our focus is on increasing peace, love, and harmony in the world. We look for similarities and use them to foster these goals.
