

Is Identifying Yourself As A Victim Serving Your Highest Good?

No!

Many people self-identify themselves as victims without realizing the negative impacts of doing so. This program helps individuals who consider themselves victims, and those who work with them, to find more empowering perspectives.

We work with individuals who have experienced everything from natural disasters, incest, war, violence, discrimination, and more. A winning mental attitude changes the future.

In Programs For Victims, You Will Learn:

- A healthy mindset that will serve you well in the coming years
- How to make the voice in your head kinder and more nurturing
- How your guidance helps you avoid being in the wrong place at the wrong time
- How your guidance can let you know when not to trust someone
- How to make your guidance communicate with greater clarity
- How to increase your personal resilience
- How to forgive yourself and others
- What causes resilience
- How to release anger
- How to rebuild your life
- And much, much more

Program Dates & Locations

Register now to reserve your space. See our list of courses for details. A small deposit holds your reservation and any price discounts for which you qualify. See Form DCT for specifics including guarantees, disclosures, cancel., etc.

